the Global Student Leadership Summit

CONTENT ALIGNED WITH THE GLOBAL GOALS
For Sustainable Development

The Largest Global Multi-Day Student Leadership Event in North America

Info: Whether motivating students to make positive personal change, or inspiring them to larger actions in their school and global or local communities, the Global Goals provide a framework for the leaders of today and their educators to make a real difference. Every nation on earth agreed to this hope-filled plan for a better world. We believe the Goals can and should flow through all learning and leadership development.

Leadership Training

Sport & High Ropes & Camp Activities & Workshop & PAC Conference

Place:

Polish Academy of Canada - 2018

Workshops During the Camp:

Keynote Speaker: Ian Tyson

HOORAY FOR EVERYTHING:

Ian takes a look deeper into personal attitude and how it affects our day to day lives. By looking back at the unbridled enthusiasm of our youth and contrasting to what we do every day in high school, stark contrasts emerge. Ian looks at how we “statistically” spend our lives and whether that is in fact, living. While not advocating blind optimism; Ian instead looks at a more complete understanding; that while life can throw us curve balls – everyone can get through it with perseverance and the right attitude. By citing humorous personal examples to overcome this, and giving hands on tips, Ian shows how letting go of negativity can really improve our outlook. Capitalizing on his trademark style of storytelling with wit and wisdom intertwined, this presentation will leave audiences with a new mantra for life “Hooray For Everything!”

OTHER TOPICS:

- BUILDING EFFECTIVE
- TIME MANAGEMNET
- GOAL SETTING
- CONFLICT RESOLUTION

Polish Students' Presentations - Workshop with Ian Tyson.

During the camp the Polish students will present their personal presentation skills and speak about their interests.

Respecting First Nationals Cultural Diversity in Canada

Why the meeting with the First Nations of Canada?

Not recognizing the cultural diversity of Aboriginal Peoples in Canada is one of the most common mistakes non-Aboriginal people make when engaging with Aboriginal communities and visiting Canada.

Justin Trudeau (Prime Minister of Canada)

Polish Academy of Canada - 2018

“Every year, we [...] recognize the fundamental contributions that First Nations, Inuit, and the Métis Nation have made to the identity and culture of all Canadians. The history, art, traditions, and cultures of Indigenous Peoples have shaped our past, and continue to shape who we are today.”

“No relationship is more important to Canada than the relationship with Indigenous Peoples. Our Government is working together with Indigenous Peoples to build a nation-to-nation, Inuit-Crown, government-to-government relationship – one based on respect, partnership, and recognition of rights.

“We are determined to make a real difference in the lives of Indigenous Peoples – by closing socio-economic gaps, supporting greater self-determination, and establishing opportunities to work together on shared priorities.”

Dan and Mary Lou Smoke are available at the Aboriginal Resource Centre to provide personal consultation, conversation, guidance and mentorship to First Nations, Métis & Inuit students and the campus community.

Mary Lou is very knowledgeable about the arts and traditional indigenous knowledge systems. She has been singing traditionally in many sacred ceremonies and lodges throughout North America. She also possesses great wisdom for women's teachings.

Dan has been working with traditional knowledge carriers from many Nations which include: Cayuga, Seneca, Oneida, Mohawk, Tuscarora, and Onondaga Nations of the Haudenosaunee. He has also been working with the Ojibway Medicine Man Isaac Day to learn the pipe and the fasting ceremonies. His knowledge of protocols for men and their roles and responsibility is one of respect for gender relations.

Trent University – Meeting with Students and Faculty

Inclusive and innovative, with a focus on the individual student, Trent is known for its top quality educational experience, supportive community environment and emphasis on global perspectives. Here's just a sampling of the reasons Trent is considered one of Canada's top universities:

A-grade for class size.

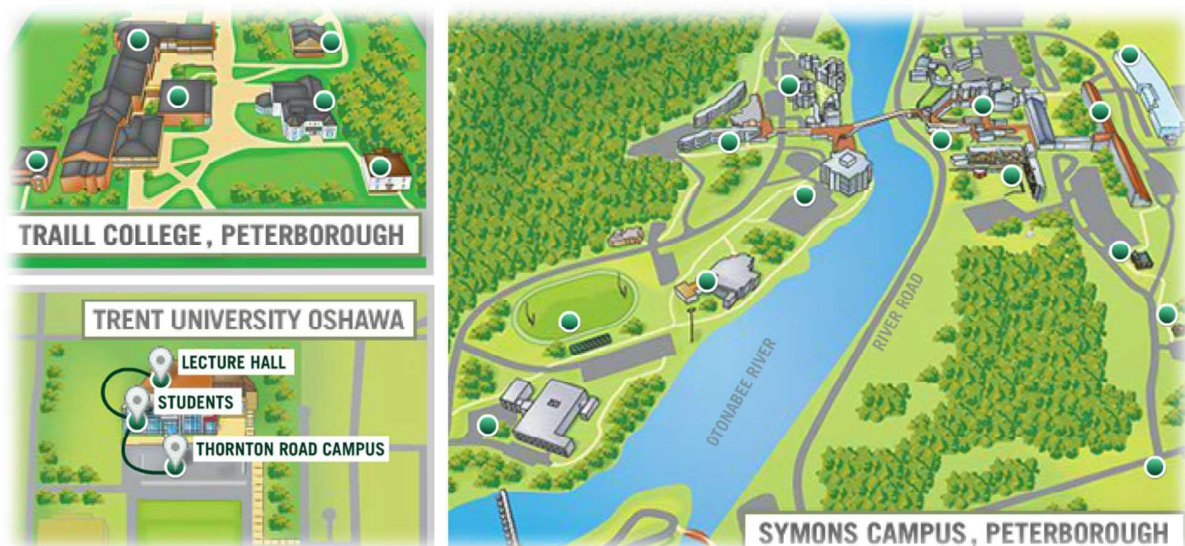

A-grade for quality of education.

A-grade for faculty interaction with students.

A-grade for quality of teaching.

The Symons campus in Peterborough doubles as an outdoor laboratory and playground with over 20 kilometers of multi-use trails at your doorstep. The Otonabee River flows through the center of campus, about as picturesque a setting for a university as you can imagine. Biking and rowing to cross-country skiing and tobogganing, Trent's surroundings afford opportunities for you to practice your favorite activities - or to try something brand new

A Visit to Ontario Parliament

Welcome to Ontario

Ontario is the most multicultural province in Canada, where half of all new immigrants make their home. Ontario is a land of opportunity. It is a prosperous, democratic society built by the hard work of generations of immigrants.

On the map, Ontario is in the middle of Canada. It is also the hub of the Canadian economy. It is a magnet for manufacturing, finance, tourism and other industries. It's also a leader in science and the arts. Our population of 12 million includes people from 200 countries who speak as many as 130 languages. Our cities are vibrant and our scenery spectacular.

Ontario has a strong, diversified economy, with many kinds of work and many different industries. Most immigrants come to Ontario because of the opportunities offered here. Our people are our greatest asset, and we welcome the talent and energy that newcomers bring to our province. In return, we offer opportunities and a quality of life that are second to none.

A Visit to the Polish Consulate & Meeting with Andrew Borkowski & Aga Maksimowska

About:

Stories about Poland in Canada: A Visit to Roncesvalles Andrew Borkowski

Roncesvalles - also known as 'Roncie' is centred along Roncesvalles Avenue.

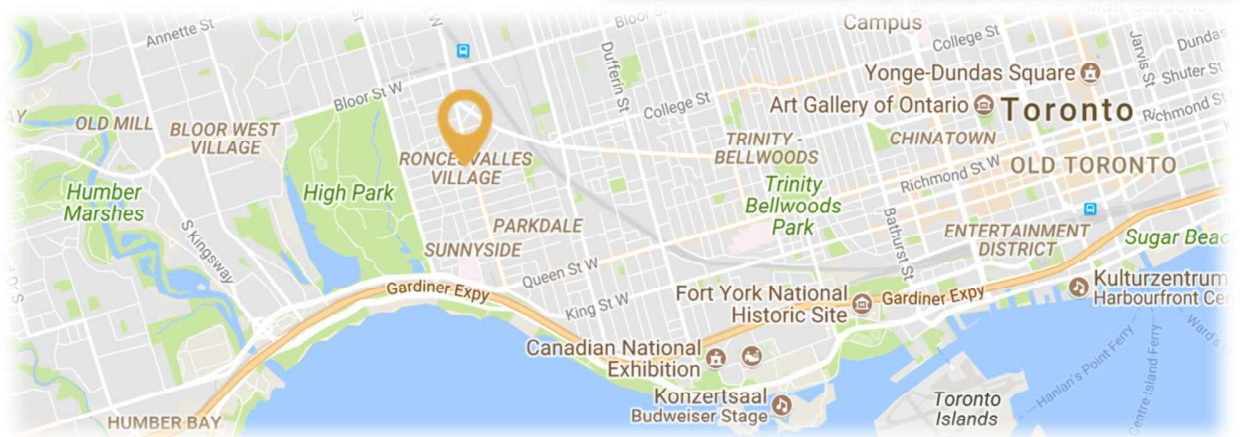

The district is culturally known as the centre of the Polish community with outstanding Polish institutions, businesses and St Casimir's Catholic Church located at its heart.

Although mainly a residential neighbourhood, a commercial strip runs the full length of Roncesvalles with a number of restaurants, delicatessens and shops that specialize in Polish goods. Some storefronts have the sign "Mówimy po polsku" ("We speak Polish") displayed.

This ethnic enclave is well known for its annual Roncesvalles Village Polish Festival which is held every fall. The festival includes clothing, craft, food stands, amusement rides and outdoor musical entertainment.
